Any questions about the activities? Read on!

READ a wordless book. → As long as there are no words or very few, it counts.

WATCH a movie with subtitles. → You can watch a movie in English with subtitles turned on, or a movie in another language with subtitles. You could even count watching episodes of (subbed!) television.

READ a new book (published in 2021-22). → Just as it says! Publication dates are usually at the beginning of a book, under 'copyright'.

WRITE a short story/poem/other piece. → Write whatever you like! If you'd like to submit it to us, we'll put the best ones online, but you don't have to! Email swantonpl@gmail.com if you're interested.

PARTICIPATE in the library's summer scavenger hunt. → The scavenger hunt entry form can also be found here: <https://swantonpubliclibrary.org/scavenger>. Participating in the hunt gets its own prize!

READ an older book (published before 2000!). → Publication dates are at the beginning of a book.

ATTEND either Pirate Training or Mysteries at Sea at the library. → Pirate Training: Meet Captain Book and the crew of the SPL; be here at 4:00 pm on June 16! Mysteries at Sea: Go on an archaeological dig and learn about sunken cities and other mysteries at 4:00 pm on June 28.

LISTEN to an audiobook. (Short ones count!) → Any audiobook of any length counts! If needed, the library has a collection of picture books paired with an audio reading, usually about half an hour long.

READ a book that became a movie. → A lot of movies now were books first! Read any of them.

WATCH the Moana interactive movie. Grab a kit from the library! → The kit will include a copy of Moana and some treats and activities to do while watching. Make sure to return the movie! You can also pick up a kit curbside; request one at <https://swantonpubliclibrary.org/curbside-request-form>

READ one of the Book Club books. Grab a kit from the library! → Pick up your free book club kit at the library! Learn more here: <https://swantonpubliclibrary.org/kids/virtual-book-club-grades-k-5>

PARTICIPATE in the Oak Openings Pond Study OR Coding Club. → Pond Study: Join a representative from Metroparks Toledo to learn more about local pond life at Mallard Lake at 3:30 pm on July 12. Participation is limited to 15 so please register at the library! Sign up at: <https://swantonpubliclibrary.org/summer-reading-program>. Coding Club meets four times during the summer at 4:00 pm on June 10, 24, July 8, and 22. Register here: <https://swantonpubliclibrary.org/coding-registration>

READ a nonfiction (real) book. (It doesn't have to be about the ocean!) → If it is happening or did happen in the real world, it counts.

ATTEND any of the all ages family programs at the library. → Beach Animals with ECO Discovery (June 7 at 10:30 am), Virtual Aquarium with the Cleveland Aquarium (June 23 at 4:00 pm), Shark Stories with the Toledo Zoo (July 21 at 10:30 am), or Water Games at the library (July 28 at 3:30 pm).

WATCH a movie that was a book first. → There are a lot of them out there! Watch any one you like.

REREAD your favorite book. → Any of your favorites will do!

DRAW your favorite mythological sea creature. → Draw your favorite imaginary ocean creature (you can draw a real one too if you want!). Email your picture to swantonpl@gmail.com if you're interested in sharing.

READ to someone OR have someone read to you. → Reading to a pet counts too!

ATTEND either Mythical Creatures or Down in the Deep Blue Sea at the library. → Mythological Creatures: Mermaid and kraken slime, weird creatures, and more at 4:00 pm on July 7. Down in the Deep Blue Sea: Deep sea jell-o, octopus crafts, and more at 4:00 pm on July 26.

READ a story about a sea creature (real or imagined!). → If it lives in water, it counts!

Good luck, stay safe, and have fun!
